

Montezuma Today

July & August 2018

National Youth Conference

National Youth Conference is this month in Fort Collins, Colorado. Under the theme of Bound Together: Clothed in Christ (Col. 3:12-15), youth from around the United States and beyond will gather for worship, insight sessions, service projects, and lots and lots of fun. Eight senior high youth and three adults are attending from Montezuma. The youth are: Piper Brown, Heather Knott, Tina Serrell, Ethan Ross, Jared Ross, Jacob Ross, Jared Smith, and Jonas Miller. Buses are leaving from Harrisonburg for sight-seeing and Fort Collins on July 17. They return July 28. Please keep all of these youth and their adult leaders in your prayers.

Brethren Woods Worship & Fish Fry August 26

For the fourth year, Montezuma will hold a Sunday morning worship service at Camp Brethren Woods, followed by a fish fry picnic. Once again, the Dayton Church of the Brethren will join us.

At Brethren Woods the worship starts at 10:30 on the morning watch benches next to the pond. Pastors Gabe Dodd and Kevin Daggett will lead this service. An offering will be collected. All checks made to Montezuma will be taken by Montezuma COB for deposit.

There will be a traditional worship at Montezuma at the regular time. Pastor David will lead that service. No Sunday school classes will be held. Anyone who wants to attend the picnic at Brethren Woods after worship at Montezuma is encouraged to do so.

The now famous fish fry – special thanks to Bob Michael and Bob Black for catching all of the fish – will begin shortly after noon at Mountain Lodge (no AC). Bring side dishes and desserts to share. Drinks will be provided. Don't forget your swim trunks since there's a great pool for our use later in the afternoon.

WORSHIP – July 2018

Sunday mornings – 9:10 a.m. Gathering Time,
9:30 a.m. Worship Hour, 10:40 a.m. Classes

1: Jesus to the Rescue! Pastor David
Mark 5:21-43

Vacation Bible School Sunday! This year's theme is "Rescued by Jesus" and includes stories about finding lost sheep and dealing with great fear. The stories in Mark 5 also deal with Jesus to the rescue. Many people turned to Jesus for help in dire circumstance. Can we?

*Special Music: Doug Tumer
International S.S. Lesson: Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

8: Stones or Loams Linda Waggy
Jeremiah 23:28-29; Matthew 13:1-9

What kind of seeds are we in today's world, and where do we plant them?

International S.S. Lesson: Jesus Criticizes Unjust Leaders

15: Grace and Responsibility Pastor Gabe
Amos 7:7-15; Ephesians 1:3-14

A famous web-slinging super hero was once told, "With great power comes great responsibility." I believe that's what Paul was telling the church in Ephesus. Although all have been adopted and invited into God's great story, we have a responsibility more than ever before to be loyal.

Special Music: Aaron Will
International S.S. Lesson: The Widow and the Unjust Judge

22: Compassionate Jesus Pastor David
Psalm 23; Mark 6:30-34; Deuteronomy 5:12-15

These verses are usually read in connection to the feeding of the 5,000. On their own, they reflect Jesus's commitment to his own and to everyone. Jesus gives and he calls us to give. But that giving is less about us being a water canal, constantly giving, and more like us being a reservoir.

Special Music: Wanda Flora
International S.S. Lesson: Entering God's Kingdom

29: Start where you are Pastor David
2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 3:14-21

Paul prays that the church would have the "power to comprehend" the "love of Christ that surpasses knowledge." How does this make sense to us? Maybe a little story in the Old Testament from 2 Kings will give us a hint. Comprehending love is like anything; we start where we are.

International S.S. Lesson: Parable of the Great Dinner

WORSHIP – August 2018

Sunday mornings – 9:10 a.m. Gathering Time,
9:30 a.m. Worship Hour, 10:40 a.m. Classes

5: Bound Together: Clothed in Christ Pastor Gabe
Colossians 3:12-15

National Youth Conference Sunday will be led by youth who went on the trip! We can't wait to see what inspires them, how they connected with the theme, and how they experienced this powerful event. After worship, a forum will happen where youth can share their experiences, and the congregation will be able to ask questions. A meal will be provided for fellowship.

*Special Music: Morgan Dakin
International S.S. Lesson: God's Justice

12: Live in Love Pastor David
Psalm 34:1-8; Ephesians 4:25-5:2

The short reading from Ephesians gives instructions about how to live: speak the truth, don't let anger get the better of you, don't make room for the devil, and work for your living "so as to have something to share with the needy." (That's not the usual motivation we're given for work, but the New Testament doesn't deal in the usual motivations.) Finally, imitate God, live in love ... be like Jesus. Remember Psalm 34: "Taste and see."

*Special Music: The Ross Family
International S.S. Lesson: Global Economic Justice

19: Seek Peace and Pursue It Pastor David
Psalm 34:9-14; Ephesians 5:15-20

The Psalm says, "Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it." Here is the logic of the commandments of God: avoid doing harm, refrain from evil; but more than that ... do good! Seek peace. The Brethren have been called a "Peace Church." What did mean? What does it mean now?

International S.S. Lesson: Loving and Just Behavior

26: Brethren Woods Fish Fry Dressed for Success

Montezuma: Pastor David
Brethren Woods: Pastor Gabe and Kevin Daggett
Psalm 34:15-22; Ephesians 6:10-20

The last Sunday of August is picnic Sunday at Brethren Woods! Two worship services: first, 10:30 worship followed by a fish fry and hamburgers at Brethren Woods – with Dayton COB; second, a traditional worship at Montezuma, 9:30 a.m. Either way you go, we will worship with joy because Jesus dresses us for success with the whole armor of God.

International S.S. Lesson: Practicing Justice

July Special Offering: Bridgewater Food Pantry

The mission of the Bridgewater Food Pantry is to distribute food to local needy families. The Food Pantry is housed at the Bridgewater Church of the Brethren, and is open the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of every month.

Generally speaking, the clients come from within a 5 mile radius of Bridgewater. The policy now is to give the clients food, no money is given. If folks need help with financial concerns, they are referred to People Helping People.

A reminder, if anyone has surplus garden produce this summer and fall, the Bridgewater Food Pantry will be happy to utilize it.

August Special Offering: Bridge of Hope

Bridge of Hope is a non-profit organization in Harrisonburg and Rockingham County that helps homeless and at risk mothers and children. They train and support mentors to serve these clients.

Bridge of Hope offers supportive friendship for a lasting impact. Individuals and church groups provide mentors to single mothers and children to help bridge the gaps. There are working classes, classes on money management, housing choices, etc. Then there is a graduation for the client, and the mentor continues to walk alongside the client.

Summer Music

Anyone who would like to provide special music for worship during the summer months, June to August, please contact Marsha Shank or Ralph Rohrer.

Nursery Schedule

If you are interested in helping with nursery care during worship September 2016 through August 2017 or you would like your name deleted from the current list, please contact Frances Shenk at 540-879-9257 by August 1st. If your name is already on the list, it will remain there unless notified otherwise.

'New and Renew' urges risk-taking

On May 16-19, Brethren from across the country met at Bethany Seminary for "New and Renew: Revitalize, Plant, Grow." The denomination's church planting and church development conference for 2018 was sponsored and organized by Discipleship Ministries (formerly Congregational Life Ministries).

Two keynote speakers encouraged participants to risk finding God's mission for them. Orlando Crespo said, "We can't be the incarnation—Christ did that. We can be the embodiment of Christ." Christiana Rice used the metaphor of a midwife, "God crying out for a new thing to be born."

Bethany dean Steve Schweitzer led Bible study on "Risk and Reward in Scripture," addressing nine specific texts. He closed with a question for himself and others: "What am I willing to risk?"

In addition, there were a variety of workshops, and an Intercultural Dinner with Annual Conference moderator Samuel Sarpiya.

Districts promote conversation about biblical authority

What kind of authority does the Bible have for us?" asked Karoline Lewis at "Biblical Authority Conversations," an event sponsored by the midwestern districts April 23-25. Marbury E. Anderson Chair in Biblical Preaching at Luther Seminary, she joined Jason Barnhart, director of Brethren Research and Resourcing for the Brethren Church, as keynote speaker. Facilitating table conversation and giving background on Brethren heritage and practice were Bethany Seminary professors Denise Kettering-Lane and Dan Ulrich.

The meeting was planned by district executives Beth Sollenberger, Kevin Kessler, Torin Eikler, Kris Hawk, and David Shetler. Also supporting the event was the Ministry Excellence Project. About 100 ministers and lay people attended.

"It's one thing to say the Bible has authority . . . but what kind?" Lewis pressed the group that gathered at Hueston Woods in western Ohio. Often what happens in conversation around biblical authority is dominance of an unquestioning attitude characterized by the statement, "The Bible says it, I believe it, that settles it." Lewis noted this as "a circular argument," and invited the group to ask why and how the Bible is authoritative.

Barnhart led a session on cognitive dissonance and confirmation bias, noting that many pick up attitudes about the Bible from popular culture and inevitably "read the Bible through those lenses," he said. "The problem comes when our biases aren't checked."

At the end of two days of intense conversation, some consensus seemed to emerge: The Bible is important to Brethren. The Bible has a lot to teach us today. Reading and studying the Bible together with others is crucial to our faith.

Some questions rose to the top as well: Are disagreements in the church still about biblical interpretation, inspiration, and authority? Or are they about how we have allowed the culture to dictate the way we approach the Bible?

Personnel notes

Todd Bauer's contract with Brethren Volunteer Service as Latin America coordinator ended in May. BVS is reevaluating how it coordinates its work in light of lower numbers and tightening budgets. Bauer served in the position for nearly 11 years, since July 2007. Previously, he was a BVS volunteer 2001-2006 in Ixtahuacán, Guatemala, working with a Catholic church and Trees for Life.

Kathy Fry-Miller retires in September as associate director of Children's Disaster Services. She began leading CDS Feb. 1, 2014. During her tenure, CDS has responded to more disasters than in any similar period, and carried out a special response in Nigeria. She has led an expansion of volunteers, developed new partnerships, and secured new grant funding. Representing CDS and the church on policy and procedure writing groups and at national levels, she has become a recognized leader in child and trauma recovery.

Mark Lancaster's role at Bethany Seminary changes Aug. 1 when he begins as assistant to the president for strategic initiatives. He has been executive director of institutional advancement since July 2015. He also begins Aug. 1 as part-time director of the Brethren Heritage Center in Brookville, Ohio, a research and educational facility focusing on the history and genealogy of bodies that share the heritage of the Brethren movement that began in 1708 in Schwarzenau, Germany. Lancaster will be the center's first salaried director.

Leadership of the Fellowship of Brethren Homes is in transition following the resignation of executive director Ralph McFadden. He began as executive director in January 2015, and retires at the end of July. Dave Lawrenz, who recently retired from leadership of Timbercrest, a church-related retirement community in North Manchester, Ind., begins as executive director in mid-July. The fellowship is a collaborative ministry of 22 retirement communities related to the Church of the Brethren.

Former mission workers Carolyn and Roger Schrock are in South Sudan for two and a half months of volunteer service with the Brethren Peace Center in Torit. They will train agronomists and work with the Eastern Equatoria Farmer's Association.

Ed Shannon has begun as retirement planning consultant for Brethren Benefit Trust. He has been a retirement plan specialist for Converge Retirement, holding a degree in Human Resources Management from Judson University. He is a member of First Baptist Church of Elgin.

Jr. High Workcamp

Four Junior High youth and an advisor are attending a Church of the Brethren workcamp in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 9-13. Loving God, Loving People (1 John 4:19-21) is the workcamp theme this year and Cincinnati workcampers will work at cleaning, painting, gardening, serving food, and engaging in prayer with community members in the city. Attending from Montezuma are: Allie Coffman, Kenzy Hiner, Josh Payne, and Adam Ross. David Miller is the advisor. We will be travelling to Cincinnati with Bridgewater COB youth beginning early on Monday, July 9. Keep this group and the workcamp in your prayers.

Vespers @ CrossRoads

CrossRoads: The Valley Brethren Mennonite Heritage Center is offering a service of vespers each Sunday evening during the summer through August 12. Each service begins at 7 p.m. and is held in the amphitheater at the top of the hill behind the buildings. Services feature a mixture of preaching, storytelling, and music. A schedule of worship programs is posted on the bulletin board in the hallway between the bathrooms. Why not participate in that evening worship opportunity? Remember to bring your own lawn chair.
